LONDON. July 3

THIS remarked, by a Holland Mail this Day, that the Paſſes in the Tyrol are all guarded by the Militia, as well towards Italy as Bavaria, whoſe Elector has again declared, that he has no other Deſign than to ſecure his own Country: However, he ſtill refuſes to ſend his Contingent to the Rhine, no good Sign of his Sincerity.

No leſs than fourteen Ruſſian Men of War are cruiſing on the Coaſt of Koningsberg, with orders from the Czarina to ſtop all the Ships and Veſſels that are going to that Place, and take from them every thing that is conſign'd to King Staniſlaus, or any of his Adherents, which will ſoon oblige him to quit the Place for want of Remittances. The King of Pruſſia reſents theſe Proceedings ſo much, that he has already complain'd to His Imperial Majeſty; and in caſe the Czarina does not make good the two Ships already taken, he will take proper Meaſures to right himſelf. The King of Denmark alſo inſiſts upon the Right of Nations, and that the Czarina has no Power to regiſter, ſtop, or examine the Ships of other Nation that are not concern'd in the War: And His Swediſh Majeſty, as the Perſon injur'd (one of the Ships belonging to his Subject) has ſent an Envoy to Petersburg, to demand Reſtitution of the Ship and Cargoe, or otherwiſe he ſhall make Reprizals.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, July 16.

The Politicians, in their Reaſonings on the continued Inaction on the Rhine, attribute ours to the Reſpect for a neighbouring Power, who is preſs'd to declare, and whom we are oblig'd to humour, 'till we know its Reſolution. We are now in a Criſis which muſt decide whether we ſhall have Peace, or a general War; but the latter ſeems moſt likely. A Report is current, that the Elector of Bavaria had ſeiz'd Ulm, and was marching at the Head of his Troops to oppoſe the Ruſſians entering his Electorate; but this wants Confirmation. However, the following Piece of News admits of no Doubt, which is, that a Courier Extraordinary from Stockholm has brought the Ratification of a Treaty with France, whereby Sweeden is to furniſh 12 or 15000 regular Troops for the Service of King Staniſlaus, who is yet thought to ſtand a fair Chance for the Crown of Poland, if what is ſhrewdly ſuſpected be true, namely, that the King of Pruſſia, by being embroil'd with the Czarina, will favour his Intereſt.

July 12. The Eyes of all Europe are fixed on the States General, in Expectation of the Reſolution they are ſpeedily to take in Purſuance of Mr. Walpole's Memorial, no leſs ſeeming to depend upon it than a general War, or the Danger of the Liberties of Europe. Notwithſtanding the boaſted Preparations for beſieging Mantua, and the Vanity of the Allies, in giving out, that the Governor would be glad at preſent to capitulate, upon Conditions of Liberty for his Garriſon, they write from Paris, that an Engliſh Gentleman there has given 600 Louis d'Ors, to receive one a Day 'till Mantua is taken. We hear now the States-General have choſen His Highneſs the Prince of Orange General of Foot. We are told from Stockholm, that one of their Trading Ships had diſcovered near the Line a ſmall but very fertile Iſland, from whence their India Company propoſe to draw great Advantages, and were ſettling a Colony there.

The Preſs for Seamen continues with as much Rigour as ever; and Orders were Yeſterday ſent to Portſmouth for getting 4 Men of War ready to ſail at an Hour's Warning. A powerful Fleet will certainly be kept up, leſt there be a Rupture. However ſome are very ſanguine in their Hopes of ſeeing ſome lucky Expedient or other found for a Pacification, on which the Stocks are kept up.

The Report of a Marriage between Prince William of Heſſe-Caſſel and Princeſs Amelia is revived, and of the ſaid Prince's coming hither with His Majeſty. And an intended ſpeedy Marriage of the Prince of Wales with a Princeſs of the Houſe of Eyſenach has been declared at Court. — His Majeſty at Herenhauſen fatigues himſelf with publick Buſineſs to a ſurpriſing Degree to find out Expedients for compoſing the Differences in Europe; and an inexpreſſible Uneaſineſs appear'd in him on News of the Allies Progreſs in Italy and the ſlow Advance of the Ruſſians towards the Rhine. — 'Tis ſaid, Prince Eugene expects 'em not there this Year, but that they are to halt at Bohemia, and from thence take another Rout.

July 15. A Letter from Paris ſays, that all Sicily being reduced, and Orbitello capitulating, the Spaniſh Army will be 40,000 Men. That 'tis ſaid the Elector of Bavaria has croſs'd the Danube with 25,000 Men, to oppoſe the Ruſſians, and ſeems forward to declare for France; other Princes having alſo proteſted againſt their entering the Empire. That their Naval Armament advances but ſlowly; but that tho' they may not be ready for a Sea War this Year, yet they're reſolv'd to reſtore the Glory of their Navy, Men labouring hard to repair old and build new Ships, having the Terrible of 110 Guns, and the Hercules and Jaſon, of 90 each, fit for Service.

'Tis aſſur'd the Allies have agreed to a Ceſſation, at the Inſtances of the 2 Maritime Powers, on Conditions ſaid to be, that Italy be divided between Don Carlos and the King of Sardinia, and an Equivalent given to King Staniſlaus for Poland. But what that is to be, and how ſuch Propoſals will take with the Emperor and Czarina, is Matter of Queſtion. Few believe their Acceptance, ſince the Emperor's Army, join'd by the Ruſſians, will be an Overmatch for the French on the Rhine, &c. and the Heats muſt ſuſpend the Siege of Mantua, or other Operations in Italy, at leaſt 6 Weeks: during which ſome favourable Incident for Germany, may turn out. Some moreover ſuſpect this Condeſcenſion of the Allies merely as a well tim'd Fineſſe of the French Court, the Dutch, according to the beſt Accounts, being juſt upon cloſing with His Majeſty of Great Britain's Councils, and taking Steps little favourable to the Ambition of the Houſe of Bourbon; and 'tis alſo obſerv'd that the real Strength, Land and Naval, of France and Spain have been all along falſely exagerated. — Our Stocks, however, continue riſing; but alas! ſo does our Corn! —. Count Konigſegg is arriv'd at Vienna, and is going to wait on the King at Hanover. They talk at ſeveral Courts of a Quadruple Alliance on the point of being concluded, for preſerving the Liberties of Europe. 'Tis ſuppos'd King George and the Czarina are Two of the Parties. - The Imperialiſts and Allied Troops have both quitted the Venetian Territories. - His Pruſſian Majeſty (who has deny'd the Prince Royal Leave to campaign it on the Rhine) inſiſting on Satisfaction for the Violence to Ships going in and out at Koningsberg, is fitting out Frigates to make Repriſals on the Muſcovites, and carrying on Warlike Preparations with the utmoſt Vigour. Tantæne animis cœleſtibus iræ? But too true it is there are ſome comical Proteſtants as well as tragical Papiſts, and perhaps as fiery: —— The Pope has abſolutely refus'd any Tribute this Year from the Emperor, for Naples and Sicily, and ſent back the preſented 7000 Ducats, ſo well as he loves the Ready. - Preparations for War between Spain and Portugal continue peaceably on both ſides; and a large Number vapouring Land Forces are arrived at Cadiz, to ſwagger, on Occaſion, on board the invincible Armada buſily equipping there.

Naval

3 Ships more, to be freighted with poor Families, for Georgia, are getting ready.

Prince Eugene has detach'd 2 Regiments of Cuiraſſiers and one of Dragoons, to meet the Ruſſian Auxiliaries, leſt they ſhould be oppos'd by the Bavarians.

We learn from the Rhine, that by the Preparations of Mortars, Bombs and red-hot Bullets, the Bombardment of Mentz ſeems to be abſolutely intended, and they talk in the French Army, that by way of Repriſal, they ſhall demand of the Inhabitants as much for Contributions as the Czarina exacted from Dantzick.

We hear that Mr. Oglethorp is about to return to Georgia in the Symons, Capt. Cornish, who will ſoon ſail with Goods and Paſſengers for Savannah, to ſee the Settlement of that Colony compleated.

Our Spithead Fleet, of equal force to that of Lisbon, is now in great Forwardneſs; but whether any more will ſail for Portugal depends on the Motions of France and Spain.

His Majeſty has declared at Hanover, that he will not recall his Fleet at Lisbon, till ſome Deſigns of France and Spain are laid aſide; and if the new Propoſals are not accepted by the Allies, he will be obliged to declare himſelf for the publick Good, and the Liberty of Nations. — Hanover is pitched on for a Congreſs.

There is too much Probability of War between the Ottoman Porte and Ruſſia; but we have neither room nor time to give the particulars.

July 19 This morning Orders were ſent from the Admiralty-Offices to Portſmouth, for the getting ready four Twenty Gun Ships, to cruize on the Coaſt of Africa.

Great Sollicitation is making to the Truſtees for Georgia by Perſons deſirous to ſettle there, ſo that upwards of 1100 Names are enter'd for that purpoſe; but ſtrict Enquiry is made of their Characters, whether they are not in Debt, and how uſeful they may be to themſelves and the Publick.

'Tis written from Hanover, that Expreſſes are going in and out Night and Day, eſpecially to the Court of Vienna; and that the King had been ſo taken up with his Conferences at Herrenhauſen, that he had not been at Hanover for 4 or 5 days ſucceſſively.

We are aſſured, by a Letter from Frankfort, that the Elector of Bavaria will neither ſend his Contingent of Troops to the Imperial Army on the Rhine, nor ſuffer the Ruſſian Forces to enter his Territories, till Satisfaction be given to all his Complaints; and that his Brother, the Elector of Cologn, had put the Management of his Troops under his Electoral Highneſs's Command. — We learn by a Letter from Paris to a Gentleman of diſtinction here, that the Treaty concluded between his moſt Chriſtian Maj. and the King of Sweeden is not only defenſive, but offenſive, & that in caſe the Emperor rejects the Suſpenſion of Arms propos'd, 12,000 Swedes, will immediately enter on French Pay, and he will be attack'd on the ſide of Sweden, on the Rhine, and by the Tyrol. Yet 'tis univerſally believed that his Imperial Majeſty will not conſent to the Armiſtice, as propoſed laſt week by the French Ambaſſador to a Deputation of the States General at the Hague, that Armiſtice being, in his Excellency's Terms, to be a General one, with theſe Conditions: That the foreign Troops immediately quit Poland: That the Ruſſians return directly out of the Empire; and that things continue in ſtatu quo upon the Rhine and in Italy. Purſuant to which Project, the French will ruin the Empire, by eating it up, and the City of Mantua will be block'd up, till the Governor is compell'd by want of Neceſſaries, to carry the Keys himſelf to the King of Sardinia.

'Tis aſſur'd, that the ſudden Retreat of the Imperial Army out of Italy was the better to fruſtrate the Projects of the Elector of Bavaria. — The Ruſſian Army appointed to aſſiſt the Emperor conſiſts of, 13,000 Foot, 14,000 Dragoons, 3000 Cuiraſſiers, and 9000 Coſſacks, in all 39,000 Men, commanded in Chief by General Laſcy, who has under him two Lieutenant Generals, and two Major Generals.

July 22. The Holland, French and Flanders Mail arrived ſince my laſt, report, that Count Uhlefeldt, the Emperor's Miniſter at the Hague, has in a Memorial to the States Deputies declared the Emperor's Readineſs to conſent to a Ceſſation of Arms, and is content that it ſhall be a general one; but inſiſts, for ſake of the Princes of the Empire, whoſe Territories are expos'd to the French Army, the moſt Chriſtian King ſhould withdraw his Troops from the Empire, thoſe in fortified Places excepted; and that the Negociations ſhould be immediately commenc'd in a Congreſs upon the Baſis of the Plan of Accommodation concerted by the maritime Powers. If this be done, which however ſome doubt of, we ſhall ſoon know, whether the Terms propos'd for a Ceſſation of Arms can be adjuſted.

Mean time 'tis confirm'd that the Elector of Bavaria has granted free Paſſage for the Ruſſian Auxiliaries thro' his Territories, provided they march in ſmall Bodies. The firſt Column of thoſe Troops is far advanc'd in its Way, and the reſt coming after in large marches.

All tends to peace and tranquillity in Poland; and the Primate having wrote a very ſubmiſſive Letter to King Auguſtus, who ſent him as gracious an Anſwer, that Prelate is ſoon expected at Warſaw, where his Majeſty is to receive him more like a foreign Prince than a Subject. — Another Holland Mail, arriv'd this Day, ſays the Primate did arrive at Warſaw the 15th between 6 and 7 in the Evening, and was to have Audience next Day of the King.

CHARLESTOWN, October 17.

On Monday the 29th of September laſt came on a hearing before Mr. Juſtice Dale and Henry Gibbes Eſq; two of His Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for Berkley County, on the Petition of Robert Gray, for the benefit of the Act of Aſſembly of this Province, for the Relief of Poor Debtors, who was then in Cuſtody of the Provoſt Marſhal, at the Suit of ——— for a foreign Debt, when the Council on behalf of the Plaintiff, inſiſted that the Petitioner being in Cuſtody for a Debt contracted out of the Province, he was not within the benefit of the Act, nor could he be intituled to that benefit unleſs the Creditor was firſt perſonally ſummoned to appear, which could not be done in this Caſe, becauſe the Juſtices had no proceſs could reach the Plaintiff, he being without their Juriſdiction. And from thence concluded that it was never the intention of the Legiſlature to extend the benefit of that Act, to foreign Debtors. To this it was replied by the Gentlemen of Council with the Petitioner, that the Act had not diſtinguiſhed between foreign and Domeſtick Creditors, therefore either ought they to diſtinguiſh; that it was manifeſt, the Legiſlature intended to relieve all Poor unfortunate Debtors, whoſe Circumſtances were ſo very narrow, as not to be worth 40 l Sterl. Money, from the perpetual impriſonment to which they would be otherwiſe ſubject, and that as this was an Act in favour of Liberty, it ought to have a liberal Conſtruction: And altho' it was true, the Act required the Creditor to be perſonally ſummoned; yet the intention and deſign of the Act would be fulfilled, if the Attorney of the Creditor, who in this inſtance was the Creditor himſelf, was ſummoned, he acting by his Authority, and in his name had impriſoned the Plaintiff, and therefore, the Service of the Summons on the Attorney ought to be deem'd and taken as a Service upon the Creditor himſelf. The Caſe being fully and learnedly argued on both ſides, the Juſtices adjourned to the next Day, to conſider of the Arguments, and to give their Judgement thereon: And on the next Day, in preſence of the Council on both ſides gave it as their Opinion, that the Service of the Summons on the Attorney of the Creditor ſhould be deem'd a Service on himſelf, and that the Petitioner was intituled to the benefit of the Act for the Relief of Poor Debtors; And thereupon the Plaintiff's Attorney diſcharged the Petitioner out of Cuſtody to prevent his ſwearing off.

Yeſterday one Samuel Underwood, who ſtood bound over upon Recognizance to the General Seſſions of the Peace, made his Appearance before the Court, and the Commiſſioners for reſtamping the Paper Bills of Credit having had ſince ſeveral Informations and evidences againſt him, that he had been aiding and aſſiſting Thomas Mellichamp and Joſhua Morgan, in the Counterfeiting and uttering the ſaid Bills, he was committed to Goal upon ſuſpicion till his further Trial.
